Our Mission

Good Government for Missouri (GGFM) is a nonpartisan political action committee working to ensure the voice of our state's Jewish community is heard in state government.

A principal focus of GGFM's mission is educating current and future policymakers on the needs of the nonprofit sector as well as the importance of strengthening public-private partnerships.

*By developing relationships with our state's political leaders,
Good Government for Missouri amplifies the voices of Missouri's Jewish community and nonprofit sector.*

Our members come from Missouri's Jewish community, and many are leaders in their own right. Since GGFM was founded in 2011, we have developed a strong and unified voice to raise the profile of many issues that matter to Missouri's Jewish community and nonprofits.

GGFM does more than contribute to campaigns; we are committed to building meaningful relationships with current and future Legislators. This engagement enables GGFM to serve as a resource for policymakers on priority issues.

Membership Benefits

- Legislative information and resources

GGFM members receive weekly updates during Missouri's Legislative Session on major issues in the General Assembly. Members are also sent bi-weekly tracking reports with bills of interest to GGFM's mission. GGFM's quarterly meetings also include in-depth legislative updates and discussions.

- Opportunities to engage with policymakers

GGFM hosts meetings with both current Legislators and candidates. At these small, informal gatherings, members cultivate relationships with policymakers and learn more about their positions and visions for Missouri. During the 2018 election cycle, GGFM hosted meetings with about 10 of the Legislators and candidates we supported.

- Connections to fellow community leaders

GGFM members are leaders in their communities and professions with a shared commitment to Missouri's Jewish community and non-profit sector. Through quarterly meetings and special events, members are able to network with other active civic leaders.
